MILLIONS OF CONVERSATIONS

America is at a crossroads. For the first time in our nation's history, we're becoming a majority minority society.

At Millions of Conversations, we are focused on transcending divides by uniting Americans around common values for a shared future. By bringing Americans together around the public square, and focusing our work at the county level, we believe that more Americans will experience authentic belonging.

I see a future where Americans trust each other, believe in each other, forgive each other, and invest in a brighter future for each other. A country, a nation, a community, a neighborhood, rooted in laws, ethics, and moral standards that will be admired by generations to come.
